18 STATEMENT OF FACTS¹

19 On May 15, 2008, Mr. Guzman was in a White Chrysler 300 that was seized by agents. He was later
20 interrogated in the Spanish language. Border Patrol Agent Mondragon then wrote a report that contained a
21 version of the contents of that interrogation. The government has provided Mr. Guzman with a DVD copy
22 of the interrogation, which is in Spanish. They have not provided a certified English translation.
23 On June 20, 2008, Mr. Guzman filed his pre-trial motions. On June 26, 2008, the government filed its 24 response in opposition.

¹ Unless otherwise noted, these facts are based on discovery provided by the government. Mr. Guzman reserves the right to take a contrary position at a later juncture.

1 II.

2 THE COURT MUST BE PROVIDED WITH A CERTIFIED TRANSLATION OF
 3 INTERROGATION TO RESOLVE WHETHER OR NOT MIRANDA WAS VIOLATED²

4 In its effort to prevent Mr. Guzman from receiving a §3501 hearing, the government cites the report
 5 of investigation to reference the questioning of Mr. Guzman. See Gov't. Memo at 8. ("he made a knowing
 6 and voluntary waiver of his rights, free from coercion.") This is problematic. First, the interrogation occurred
 7 in Spanish and the report of investigation is in English. It is unknown who translated the interrogation for 8 the report, but it is known that there is no evidence that said person is certified to perform that task. Also,
 9 the DVD of the interrogation is the best evidence of what was said. And the fact that the government cites
 10 the report of investigation indicates that they are not relying on the actual interview. It is unfair to force Mr.
 11 Guzman to be limited to a non-certified English translation that was apparently prepared by the government
 12 agent that arrested Mr. Guzman. The resolution of this issue should await production of a certified
 13 transcription. Since it is the government's burden to prove compliance with Miranda, they should provide 14 the translation. See United States v. Heldt, 745 F.2d 1275, 1277 (9th Cir. 1984) Obviously, this is a moot
 15 issue if they do not desire to use the statements at trial.

16 III.

17 MR. GUZMAN HAS MEET HIS BURDEN FOR PRODUCTION
 18 OF GRAND JURY TRANSCRIPT

19 The government has responded that Mr. Guzman has failed to support his motion [for production of 20 grand jury transcript] of the requisite need. See Gov't. Memo. at 7. Mr. Guzman made this showing by 21 pointing out that there was exculpatory evidence of which the government was aware and it is unknown
 22 whether or not this evidence was presented to the grand jury panel that indicted Mr. Guzman.

23 The government argues that Mr. Guzman's statement that he "never states that he had knowledge of 24 the material witnesses' immigration status prior to his arrest is in direct contrast to [his] own statement in the 25 report of investigation." Id at 8. Mr. Guzman's statement might differ from the report of investigation that 26 was authored by an agent, but it does not differ from what actually occurred at the interrogation. Defense
 27 counsel has watched the DVD of the interrogation, which is in Spanish, and believes that Mr. Guzman never 28

1 admits to knowing the immigration status of the material witnesses prior to his arrest. Therefore, assuming
2 defense counsel is correct, that evidence is exculpatory, and should have been presented to the grand jury.

3 Next, the government argues that the fact the material witnesses fail to claim that Mr. Guzman was 4 aware of their immigration status is an "omission," it is not exculpatory. See Gov't Memo. at 8. However,
5 that omission mitigates against a finding against probable cause and should have been presented to the grand
6 jury. And when you join this omission to the fact that Mr. Guzman did not admit to knowing they were
7 illegal prior to being arrested, the grand jury would have been left with no direct evidence that Mr. Guzman
8 knew of the material witnesses' illegal status. And for that reasons, it is necessary to determine if the grand 9 jury was in fact apprised of this exculpatory evidence.

10 IV.

11 COMPEL DISCOVERY

12 It appears that the majority of Mr. Guzman's discovery requests are being worked out informally.
13 In its response, the government stated that it would comply with all specific request. However, on June 14 20, Mr. Guzman specifically requested production of any reports pertaining to the prior incident involving 15 the seized vehicle referenced in Mr. Mondragon's report, and all dispatch tapes relating Mr. Guzman's
16 arrest. He has not received those items.

17 V.

18 CONCLUSION

19 Mr. Guzman requests that the Court rule as set out above, and in his previous pleadings.

20 Respectfully submitted,
